Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives wholeheartedly believe that a successful marriage forms a firm foundation for a lifetime of happiness and security and wish to salute an outstanding Missouri couple whose union confirms that philosophy; and

Whereas, Mr. and Mrs. George Gayler, cherished residents of Maryville, Missouri, commemorated the resplendent occasion of their Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary on June 13, 2004, with a festive celebration and reception at the First United Methodist Church in Maryville; and

Whereas, joined in marriage before the eyes of the Lord on June 11, 1944, George and Barbara Gayler began their lives together as husband and wife after a memorable wedding ceremony at the First United Methodist Church in Abingdon, Illinois; and

Whereas, a proud father and caring husband who dutifully served his country in the United States Army Air Corps during World War II, Mr. Gayler provided a safe and secure future for his loved ones as a professor at Northwest Missouri State University in Maryville for thirty-eight years, while Mrs. Gayler enjoyed her family immensely and showed her special love for them by dutifully caring for her home and remaining supportive of their every endeavor; and

Whereas, George and Barbara Gayler attribute their sixty years of wedded success and happiness to their strong sense of faith and family, the foundation upon which they have planted the seeds of their love and respect for each other in the generations to follow which include their son and daughter-in-law, Richard and Nancy Gayler of Kennesaw, Georgia; their daughter, who is an angel in heaven; and their three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren; and

Whereas, throughout their blissful union, George and Barbara Gayler have remained devoted life partners and have put forth a tremendous amount of effort to ensure the sanctity of the vows they took so very long ago:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in a thunderous round of applause for George and Barbara Gayler upon the glorious celebration of their sixtieth Wedding Anniversary, and in wishing them tremendous peace and contentment as they proudly continue their journey along life's path; and
